CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH

27 Church St., Asheville, N. C.

Lee F. Tuttle, Minister

This Church was organized more than one hundred years ago and may be considered the result of the work of Bishop Asbury, pioneer preacher and organizer of the Methodist Church in Western North Carolina. Beginning with a small frame structure in 1837, the present modern plant is the third building to be erected on the original location in downtown Asheville. With a membership of more than 2,000, Central Church is one of the largest Methodist Churches in North Carolina.
